IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT PATNA
Cr.Misc. No.27675 of 2008
BALLAM YADAV @ RAJ BALLAM YADAV
Versus
STATE OF BIHAR
---

2. 31.7.2008 Heard.

Regard being had to the facts of the case and its ultimate implications and impact on the safety of the society and rule of law, I am not inclined to direct the release of the petitioner on bail. Petition is dismissed.

However, the court feels that in such cases there could be any time frame because the persons who seeks justice by virtue of the rule of law do not have any respect of rule of law. The trial court could take its own time in concluding the trial but that does not mean in sensitive and orientation and act as per the judgement of the SC reported in AIR 2002 270 Shailendra Kumar Vrs. State of Bihar.
